Bratton Brothers Invitational celebrates 50 years of golf guild

50th anniversary event takes place at Craft Farms in March

SUBMITTED

What started as a Birmingham golf buddy trip in 1970 has become an annual reunion for the Bratton Brothers Invitational Golf Tournament, which celebrates 50 years of camaraderie March 6-8 at Craft Farms

Golf Resort. Nearly 600 individuals representing 20 states and Canada have participated in this event over time, and four of the original seven buddies will participate this go-around.

"We never thought we'd make 50 years," said Greg Waldrop, tournament coordinator. "Guys from all over the country and Canada have participated in our tournament. Their participation has enriched many lives and created lifelong friendships."

The group has played 22 golf courses along the Alabama and Florida Gulf Coasts and is back home to celebrate this milestone event where it all began.

"This is where it started, and the hospitality we receive here is far superior to anywhere else," Waldrop said. "It's home sweet home."

Golf Scramble fundraiser

SUBMITTED PHOTOS

The 7th Annual Baldwin County Heritage Museum (BCHM) Golf Scramble was held Thursday, Feb. 21, at the Glen Lakes Golf Club. The foggy start to the day made it a bit difficult to see the greens, but all the teams registered except one showed up. By 10 a.m. the sky was clear, and a great time was had by all. With the sponsors, door prizes, raffles and auction about $7200 was raised for the museum. Golfers and volunteers enjoyed the warm day and a great lunch. Thank you to all who so generously donated prizes, sponsored holes and bought raffle tickets. Special thanks to Glen Lakes and the museum staff for organizing a wonderful golf outing. The BCHM is a free museum located on US 98 just east of Elberta and is open from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Wednesday through Saturday. Currently a blacksmith is on duty also. Stop in to see the daily lives of the people who settled Baldwin County. The azaleas are in full bloom right now.

Meyer Park playground closed to public for renovation and improvements

SUBMITTED

The City of Gulf Shores is excited to announce the upcoming Meyer Park Improvement Project, which will improve and reconfigure the existing Meyer Park playground area located in the Waterway Village District at 400 East 22nd Ave. The current playground area at Meyer Park will be closed for demolition and construction beginning Monday, March 4.

The Meyer Park Improvement Project will include replacing the playground, pouring new sidewalks with benches and re-sodding open areas near the pavilion and restrooms. In addition, the park will feature new recycling containers as part of the city-wide recycling initiative.

"We feel this project will not only spruce up Meyer Park, but also enhance resident experience, greatly increase play area safety and steam-line area maintenance," Recreation & Cultural Affairs Assistant Director Matt Young said.

The estimated completion date for the Meyer Park Improvements is April 2019. The pavilion, horseshoe pits and open grass fields will remain open to the public during the construction period.
