

Warren Craig Pouncey, Ed.D.

President of Coastal Alabama Community College

Dr. Craig Pouncey has served as president of Coastal Alabama Community College since October 1, 2019. Prior to his appointment, he served as Superintendent of the Jefferson County School District; and in 2018, he was named the Alabama Superintendent of the Year by the Association of School Superintendents of Alabama (SSA).

While serving as superintendent, Dr. Pouncey managed 57 schools and more than 36,000 students in the state's second largest school system. Dr. Pouncey previously served as Chief of Staff for the Alabama State Department of Education and Superintendent of Education for Crenshaw County Schools. He received his Ed.D. from Samford University.

While at the Alabama State Department of Education, his responsibilities included proper use and distribution of all state and federal funds for K-12, legislative liaison, and financial accountability.

His hobbies are spending time with family, including four grandchildren, hunting, fishing and managing timber.
